

Dr. Mèlèze HOCINI, M.D, PhD is Professor at Bordeaux University Hospital, Department of Cardiac arrhythmias center in Bordeaux, France. She has more than 20 years of experience in catheter ablation procedures, including atrial fibrillation ablation and ablation of ventricular fibrillation . Her research interests focus on the mechanisms of atrial rhythm disorders and their treatment, as well as mapping and treatment of ventricular fibrillation and evaluation of patients at risk of sudden cardiac death